Team Overview

Greg Kiley is the President of Kiley & Associates, bringing 25 years of federal government experience, including serving as a senior staffer on the Senate Armed Services Committee. He specializes in national security, defense, and local government policy. Greg has extensive expertise in developing legislation, coordinating hearings, and overseeing defense budgets. He now consults federal, state, and local governments and resides in Washington, D.C. with his family.

Kimberly VanWyhe, Vice President of Kiley & Associates, focuses on business development and strategy. She has worked on multiple political campaigns, served in the Alaska State Legislature, and consulted for The Cohen Group. Kimberly previously directed energy policy at the American Action Forum and holds an MBA in International Business from Thunderbird School of Global Management. She currently resides in Washington, D.C.

Jayson Braude, Chief Counsel at Kiley & Associates, has over 15 years of government affairs experience. He previously worked for U.S. Senators Kent Conrad and Sherrod Brown and served as Legislative Counsel to Congresswoman Janice Hahn. Jayson later became District Director for Congresswoman Nannette Diaz Barragan. He is a UC Santa Barbara and Southwestern Law School graduate, residing in Washington, D.C.

Michael Lane, Senior Partner at Kiley & Associates, specializes in federal supply chain policy, risk management, and government affairs. A former U.S. Army officer, he led a logistics and sustainment company deployment in Iraq. Michael has advised federal agencies such as the Departments of State, Treasury, and Defense, along with major defense contractors. He resides in Washington, D.C. and maintains strong relationships across Capitol Hill and federal agencies.

Our Background

A Strong Track Record

Founded in 2009, Kiley & Associates supports states, cities, and special districts with in-depth analysis and delivers political strategy through a solutions-driven, tailored approach that bridges both industry and government perspectives.

Our unique background enables us to guide strategic planning, build partnerships, and help clients secure critical funding to advance their priorities. We facilitate meaningful engagement with state and federal partners, ensuring that local needs are represented and supported at every level of government. We collaborate with our clients to:

- Help develop their federal legislative priorities
 - Work to raise local government profiles with Congress, federal agencies, and the White House
 - Coordinate with a dedicated day-to-day point of contact to identify and refine an organization's top projects and policy priorities for its federal agenda, including efforts to secure state and federal funding, advance health/ infrastructure improvements, and support core operational or community needs
 - Build support for objectives and resources needed from Congress
 - Develop federal grant strategies and issues that are pertinent to the client's legislative priorities, etc.
